

Recap

In the intro to the series you learned about the Hummingbird family. Cynthia Hummingbird's granddaughter, Emma, is about to be wed. There is only one problem! The wedding ring has been stolen. This ruby ring is a family treasure. Detective Bossley will be conducting the investigation. He will question all of the residents of Hummingbird Manor. Cynthia is filming the investigations. Why would she do this? You be the detective! The first suspect is Ralph Hummingbird.

Did You Know?

The word "question" can be a noun and a verb. The detective will question (verb) the residents of Hummingbird Manor. He will ask them questions (noun) about where they were the evening of the robbery. They will have to provide an alibi. A good alibi can prove a suspect's innocence in relation to a crime.

Dialogue Fill in the blanks with the words from the vocabulary list.

- DETECTIVE: Sorry to interrupt your show Ralph. Could you tell me where you were the night the ruby ring disappeared?
- RALPH: I was watching _____ of your murder mystery with my mother. She can't get enough of reality TV.
- DETECTIVE: I'm glad you enjoyed the series. Let's get down to _____, shall we? Tell me about your relationship with your mother.
- RALPH: My mother means the world to me. I miss my father, though.
- DETECTIVE: I hear Mr. Hummingbird was a fine business man. You were born with a silver _____ in your mouth, weren't you?
- RALPH: Yes, but money means nothing to me. I care more about love.
- DETECTIVE: Do you love your wife?
- RALPH: Of course. Lila is the love of my _____. I just wish she felt the same way about me.
- DETECTIVE: Let me guess. Things changed when you had the twins?
- RALPH: Bingo. Lila used to look at me like Paul gawks at Emma. You know the look. My mother looks at you that way. You and Paul.
- DETECTIVE: Is that jealousy I sense? Your daughter's fiancé is a handsome man.
- RALPH: Jealousy? Don't be ridiculous. I'm happy for Emma. She doesn't realize how lucky she is.
- DETECTIVE: Really? Does it bother you that your mother adores Paul?
- RALPH: On the contrary. If my mother didn't approve of Paul, Emma wouldn't be marrying him. She'd lose her inheritance and the guest house.
- DETECTIVE: Is that right? And, Emma has her heart set on those things, I assume.
- RALPH: Actually, Emma doesn't care as much about money as her mother does. She'd be happy living in the jungle. It's me that wants Emma to move into the guest house. The sooner Lila and I can have an empty _____ the better!
