

Worksheet for Reading Lesson

Name: _____ Date: _____

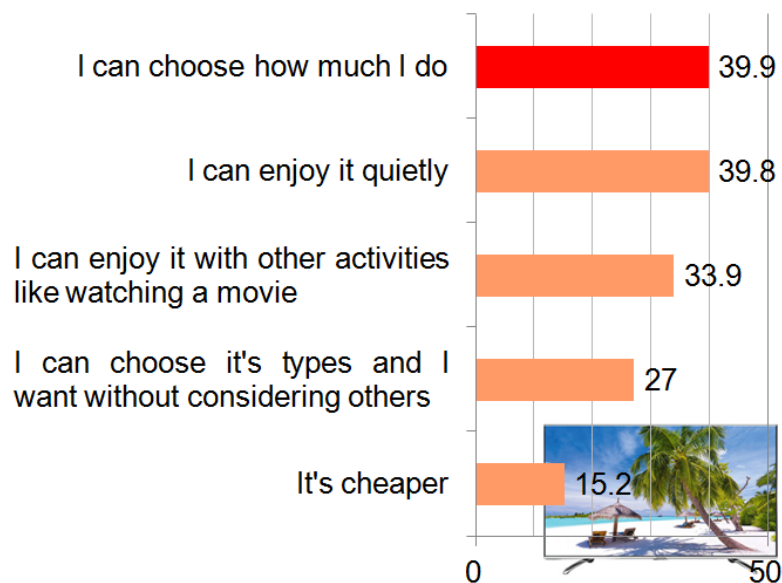

Exercise 1

- 1) Do you enjoy drinking?
- 2) When was the first time you drank? What was the experience like?
- 3) There is a blank. Guess what.

Top 5 reasons for

?

Unit: %

Exercise 2

- 1) What type of writing this text?
- 2) How do you know?
- 3) What do you know from the three difference charts?
- 4) What is the main idea of this text?

Exercise 3

Write down the answer to these questions.

- 1) Most days after work, what is Mr. Cho' routine?
- 2) When does Chung drink alone at home?

- 3) Fill in the blank.

For Koreans, drinking has traditionally been a _____, but more Koreans are drinking _____ these days.

The number of single-person households hit ____ million at the end of last year and accounted for ____ percent or the total population.

- 4) What is the most popular type of alcoholic beverage consumed alone?
- 5) In the charts, were multiple answers allowed?

Exercise 4

Talk to your partner and share your answer to these questions.

- 1) Why has the tradition changed, or are more people drinking alone?
- 2) Why does beer become the most popular type of alcoholic beverage consumed alone?
- 3) Why does Mr. Cho follow the same routine most days after work?
- 4) Why do 92.6 percent of solitary drinkers drink at home?
- 5) Why does the number of singer-person households continue to grow?

Exercise 5

Think about the answer and then compare your answer with your group.

- 1) What is Korean way of drinking like? What do you think of it?
- 2) What do you think of people who drink a lot or little?
- 3) When do you feel the urge for grabbing drink with friends or alone? Why?
- 4) What is the best food for your drinking alone? And what is the best type of alcohol?