

Friendship

Friendship is believing in each other.

Friendship is caring, sharing and sticking together, too. There are many ways to show friendship.

This is my friend, Jack.

He is a great friend to me. Jack is my classmate in school. He is very clever. He works very hard in school. He likes to read books in the library and do his homework! The teachers think Jack is a wonderful student.

All my classmates really like Jack. He is a kind boy. He plays with everybody in the playground. He loves to tell funny stories to make his friends laugh. If he sees somebody on their own in the playground, Jack will always invite them to play in our game.

Karen's best friend, Tara, was in the hospital. She had all her classmates make get-well cards for Tara. Then she visited her friend in the hospital. Tara's other friends were scared to see her when she was sick, but Karen cared about Tara and stuck with her no matter what! Karen was a good friend.

The bus was coming soon, and Ron didn't have his stuff packed up. He was having a hard day. Tim and Dan helped Ron pack his stuff up quickly, so he could make it to the bus on time. They were showing their friendship for Ron.
